FOREIGN.

She had most terrible weather the whole passage.

The greatest possible distress among the working the working the world as some folks tell us? Why does she not and Navy, professing to detail the reasons of their fall in with a living creature. ready for an out-break. The old banking house of Hob- only because of the errors of our own party house at Bath, had stopped. Great complaints and many . There is one fact discovered by the political histhe Tories. Fergus O'Conner was escorted into London by earnestly pressed upon its attention. It is this: We hope not. an immense assemblage.

eral votes. It was then adjourned.

A very important meeting took place in the Corn Exchange, cracy of this State-whose principles are but the of it. He can walk into the Bank, lay down his prove the genuine character of their [pretended] de-Harging Ditch, on Wednesday evening, to hear a detailed realization of the Christian doctrine proclaiming the money, and receive either gold and silver, or a draft mocracy; * * * they preached treastatement from James Curtis, Esq., of Ohio, United States, perfect equality of all men in the sight of God—have on the capability and willingness of the Americans to supon the capability and withingness of the Americans to sup-ply England with an abundance of corn, in exchange for our been soundly and thoroughly beaten at every elec-lindiana money are now worth but eighty-eight dol-minority at the polls. In shore, they did what they manufactures." Richard Colden, Esq., M. P., took the tion since 1837, by allowing men professing princichair. Many hundreds left the doors because mouble to find ples and supporting measures odious to the people, Bank paid specie, would be worth ninety-eight, a ly despised, and they internally despised their heareven standing room -Manchester Times.

has token place near Dublin. The windows of the Rev. steal across the lawn, arm himself with stones, and then proceed to break the wind-ws. They succeeded in securing the offender, when, to their great ast hishment, they found that they had made prisoner of the Rev. Mr. Crampton himself! gamization of the United States, that federal interfrom home, but certainly it is not uncharitable to conclude that one who was so desperately determined on being "a would not be state to employ some confidential servant to do nearly all the rights of those monarchies in which cal Agents in all the heads of all the members of zette. the work for him in his absence. This affair has caused no an act of parliament supercedes the action of evepittle amusement as an illustration of "Irish outlages,"

Attempt to assassinate one of the sons of Louis Phillippe. toine to Neutlly, where a grand banquet was prepared by the sidered of subordinate and trifling importance. Yet and taxes are laid to provide the means. man dressed in a blouse started from a carbaret and discharg- volved in the acts of the government of the State. as a bank ! his royal brothers; but the Dukes of Orleans, Nemours, for their municipal laws, for an administration of cheated. tunately the shot did not take effect, but the horse of a Gen- of the vital questions related to the banking system, the assassin is Nicholas Peppard. resumed, and it passed along the Boulevards, the Princes still maintaining their places at its head, and cheered by the people. It proceeded to Neuilly, and, up to the hour of of society." writing, no account of any other disagreeable occurrence has in Auvergne. The people, resisting the officers in the taking the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who supporting the recensement, had fired on the military who support the recensement of t ed them, killing and wounding seventeen soldiers. At one ill. When we hear of any kind of business which banks in the violation of all faith, to declaim so were called in and the riot was put down.

nounces that order was restored, that the troops re-occupied the act of searching for a person suspected to be an accom- ereised under the monopoly of special charters, some authority. Fauburg St. Antoine and seriously injured. The arrival of which are to do the banking for the state, and are to sustain society itself .- Kendall's Expositor. an armed force, however enabled him to make the intended be managed with the strictest honesty and impartiairest, and to capture the ringleaders of those who attacked him. In the evening a crowd assembled at the Rue Traver-But though order was restored. Paris presented a very dis-turbed appearance. The shops were shut, and alarm was visible on every countenance. This shows the little confidence for the merchant, the lawyer, or the doctor, or for which the people have in the supremacy of the law. A gov- people who live in fine houses in our cities an emment is never strong where a revolution is believed to towns. The State furnished the greater portion of the Americans, his countrymen, then here, and very many of his distinguished French acquaintance, assembled before 9 * The appointing power of o'clock at his elegant chatcau of Suresne, in order to pay an portion of its officers is reserved to the agents of th earnest tribute of esteem for his memory. Mr. Welles was born at Boston, in the United States, in 1778. He inherited a fortune, which, after receiving a thorough mercantile education, he speedily enlarged by intelligent and energetic en- This stands very well, and yet the same print ac terprise. In 1816, he founded the house of Welles & Co., in knowledges that "if the bank has fallen, or sha this capital, and that of Welles & Greene at Havre.

are putting Chusan in a state of defence. A vessel which lately returned from that island to Macao, brought informamonths, or it may last for years."

The Emperor has also intimated an intention of taking the commissioners bestir themselves, and tell the world the growing anti-bank feeling among the people, and the decome a citizen, upwards of five years since, in the Court Gregg. will fight the outer barbarians with 100,000 soldiers. ces. When the explosion takes place, your bank in the stoppage of some of the weaker western banks. case in which the decision was made, as follows:field in person, should such a measure be found necessary, at his deminion.

TEXAS.

will be elected President.

may be granted.

LATE OF BAGE AT ALBURGH, Vr.—The dragoons who k-dnapped Col. Grogan do not belong to what is considered

The same print contains statements of the miswhich they are entitled; while the rotten ones will go to the regular British army. The regular soldiers, when placed conduct of the branch of the bank established at In. the tomb of the Capulets. on the frontier, have deserted to such an extent that the dianapolis, such as discounting to a large amount In our judgment it is a great defect in the Bankrupt Law. on the frontier, have described to such an extent that the distrapolis, such as discounting to a large amount government has been compelled to raise a force in the province for frontier service. The min and officers are chosen while the notes of farmers and mechanics were refront those who are loudest in their professions of levalty. There is nothing to be gained by waiting.—Jourfrom those who are loudest in their professions of loyalty to the Queen, and most bitter in their prejudices against the jected, on the pretext of want of funds—and cases nal Com. republicans of the States. They draw their pay and rations in which the officers of the bank had caused notes from the British government, and although they cannot be presented for discount to be rejected, and afterwards THE MILINGTON BANK CASE.—Ellis, President of that considered the most fit men to preserve peace on the frontiers, bought them on their own account, at a profit, &c. swindling concern, the Millington Bank, was tried last week | It is said that Mr. Tyler, in voting for Mr Clay at Harristhey are the most unscrupulous tools of tyrarny, and those &c. These are abuses which will never cease until at Chesterton, Md., and convicted. He was placed in prison burg, committed himself in favor of a lank. If this be true, dicant, summoned for non-payment of temperate to ling been applied to, all of whom were out shooting grouse!

IMPORTANT TRUTHS.

The following excellent observations from the New York Evening Post, are eminently worthy the attention and remembrance of every Democrat .-The Acadia steamship arrived at Boston on the 5th inst. When we can bring ourselves to act in accordance their promises to pay, and giving the country a good as well as in the brawls and fights of members on ENGLAND.

ENGLAND.

ENGLAND.

The greatest possible distress among the working classes singleness of purpose, we shall reduce the anti-de-that the party is most successful in its appeals to We hold these truths to be self evident-that eve- * * During this campaign, the Horse or Commons, Sept. 17th -Mr. D. Barelay gave no- the people, and in the management of its power, ry bank confining itself to a safe, prudent business, lowest appeals were made to the lowest passions Sir Robert Peel defended his own conduct by finding fault enemies or false friends; when it sought the expewhich are the source of strength, it has always met country is locked up in the vaults of the Banks, and maintain the one, discharge the other, and consult with more regard to comfort than show, by Gen. Van Ness, fathmistakes. The debate which ensued was animated by the has adhered firmly to its pure and benevolent creed sible issue of Bank-rags. The suspension of specie tude, incapable of comprehending any thing higher sentative. It was shared by several members and lasted the whole evening. Lord John Russell made no motion, he only tiply; its unity is strengthened, and its movements pay, and its paper will therefore se I for only such cider, and coon skins; they counselled the erection river. whole evening. Lord John Russell made no motion, he only such are more unembarrassed and spirited. For, when it sum as men think it may be worth, or with such de- of log cabins, filled with every means of intemperforth the distress of the manufacturers, and declaring that is true, it has no partial in- duction as they think will make it equal to money. ance; they drank grog in these dens of debauchery Parliament ought not to be proregated without inquiring into terests to consult, no faction to conciliate, no leader But if you want a good currency, turn the tables. with the lowest and most profligate vagabonds; den to be made, for the fine old garden of General Van Ness Parisment ought not to be profigate vagabonds; it. His motion was negatived by 149 to 41. The House to aggrandize, no ambition but the ambition of security with individuals—went into a Committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had ment into a committee of Supply after Mr. Greene had ment went into a Committee of Supply, after Mr. Greene had been appointed Chairman of Committees, and agreed to sev-THE CORN LAWS AND FREE TRADE WITH AMERICA. - cotemporary, the Mohawk Courier, "that the Demoto intrigue themselves into nomination for respon- difference of ten dollars on the hundred, which ers for listening to such suggestions." Insu Ourrages. -An affair, neither tragical nor roman- sible offices - men who long since pitched their tents first comes out of the pockets of merchants, and then Thank God, the democracy of the country are the but which has nevertheless created no little sensation, upon ground equi-distant between Democracy on the out of the people. They are plundered for the behas taken place near Dublin. The windows of the Rev. one hand and Aristocracy on the other, and who nefit of the Bank—their property sold under the can wash their hands of all conduct of the kind. It the offenders; but one evening they perceived a man not warn the democracy that their only hope is in neither indeed can be!" fidel tv and fearlessness!

ry inferior agent or tribunal. It has connected itself so closely with the interests of individuals, con- ... CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER CASES." simed at the Duke of Orleans as the heir to the throne. For- It is the State Government which has the disposal people are taxed.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

Very disagreeable events have taken place at Clermont, When we hear of a man who is always taking me- LOSS. be sure, without further enquiry, that it is in a state faith of the States!

cade. Mounted immicipal guards, however, swept the streets, "The State Bank of Indiana is a public institu- ports of the precious metals for the four last years: The obsequies of the late Samuel Welles, Esq, the eminent banker, were performed on Thursday last. Nearly all hereafter fall into the hands of the weak and con rupt the State will be cursed by its maladministration The Bombay Courier of July 13, states that the Chinese to as great an extent as she now is by the profligate Excess exports system of Internal Improvements, which, with its

All the care of legislatures and committees and southern exchanges in some degree. bank commissioners did not retard for a moment the BANK SUSPENSION.

It appears by the latest advices from Texas, that flow ton will be elected President.

The Houston Telegraph says—Col. Peraza, Envoy from quiring; statements were published; bank commission. The Houston Telegraph says—Col. Peraza, Envoy from quiring; statements were published; bank commission, and that before he could be admitted as a citizen, he says and the control of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of all former proceedings on the part of the applicant touching his naturalization, and that before he could be admitted as a citizen, he says on the part of the applicant touching his naturalization, and that before he could be admitted as a citizen, he says on the part of the applicant touching his naturalization, and that before he could be admitted as a citizen, he says on the part of the applicant touching his naturalization.

Streams or the control of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of all former processes of Bank suspension. The Houston Telegraph says—Col. Peraza, Envoy from the control of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declared by the Recorder to be a vitiation of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was declare the new republic of Yucatan, and his Secretary, arrived in sioners were travelling about from one bank to ano will submit to it. If they are quiet under the operation, the must again declare his intention—it being absolutely necesthe Gallatin, and left on the succeeding day for Austin. It ther, and yet the great insolvency went on ripening Banks will be so too.

ernment of Mexico, and in case this should be grant d, he is Besides the inability of a state government to keep their sufferings than they were at the beginning. The ongress are now chosen, and other and important questions re-quire the early action of Congress, it is possible the President to complain of. The parent, or state board of di-should be had to this important object. may convene Congress a few weeks previous to the appoint- rectors, have had a continual scene of labor, in order any place. There are eight groggeries here, which do an exed period of meeting; in order that the requisite authority to check the cupidity of many of the branches, and tenness of sundry Banks; but this, instead of an objection, is verted to the worst of purposes." who would naturally be chosen to do the work that they the whole system is swept away, and banking is after his conviction, and a motion for a new trial made by his then Mr. Clay, in voting for Mr. Tyler as Vice President, the poor man's church. - English paper. left to the care of itself. The older the state bank his trial to take place at the next term. The charges against known to be in favor of a bank, Mr. Tyler was equally well

From the Goshen Democrat. THE STATE BANK OF INDIANA.

WHY DON'T SHE RESUME. with the precents here inculcated, in good faith and currency and cheap exchange, what is the matter the floor of Congress, and the no less disgraceful money upon political favorites-has she embarked ing severe, cutting, but no less true remarks :-

to assassinate the Duke d'Aumule to day. He was at the beat of his life has been engaged. When, however, the have been precisely in proportion to that power and tricked and the land destruction apart of his life has been engaged. When, however, the have been precisely in proportion to that power and tricked part of his life has been engaged. When, however, the conversation is diverted to political subjects, he expresses. The Hartford Patriot, a whig paper, says:—"As for our conversation is diverted to political subjects, he expresses that the land destruction is diverted to political subjects, he expresses the land of the

Why this difference !

From the N. Y. Herald.

31		Unit	ED STATES.
d	Imports.	1837.	1838.	1839.	1840.
10	Gold bullion,	536,549	230,694	86,540	273,127
(i)	Silver "	591,391	392,843	149,680	469,434
of	Gold coin,	1,895,261	11,444,189	1,078,040	2,812,030
ts	Silver "	7,490,309	5,679,390	4,280,916	5,328,222
ır e.	Total, Exports.	10,516,410	17,747,116	5,595,176	8,882,813
a	Am. gold and
91	silver	1,283,519	472,941	1,908,358	2,235,073	į
	Foreign gold	1,980,216	740,263	2,892,310	1,468,300
	Foreign silver	2,762,514	2,294,842	3,976,075	4,665,952
c-	Total,	5,976,249	3,508,046	9,776,743	8,369,325
11	Imp'ts as above	10,516 410	17,747,116	5,595,176	8,882.813
†
	Excess imports	4.540.161	14 239 070		513.488

not find so. The agents of the people, that is to There is some little uneasiness among the Banks in rela-It is said that the Tartar officers and their toops, expect- say, the legislature, appoint a portion of the officers tion to the experienced a great loss, ed from the north, linger so long on the road in order to of the bank; and we all know how strictly and in- consequence. This cannot, however, seriously affect mer- that some calamity had visited it, that a pestilence had carsqueeze the people of the towns and villages through which they pass to the utmost.

The bank, too, is subject to examinations for carrying on the warfare with the Chinese continued in India. The new Flender with the Chinese continued in India. The new Flender with the Chinese continued in India. The new Flender with the Chinese continued in India. The new Flender with the Chinese continued in India. The new Flender with the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest, more than the balance of the community of the contest of the contest of the community of the contest of the cont instendiary, Sir Henry Pottinger, and the Admiral Sir Will- know what is the value of these examinations and $5,200,000; since then $100,000 has been received, and $900,iam Parker, arrived at Bombay on the 7th of July, and set statements. Boards of bank commissioners and bank 000 shipped; consequently there remains $4,300,000 on hand bubbles of John Law had exploded." out for their ultimate destination on the 17th, in the steam out for their ultimate destination on the 17th, in the steam of the affirs of banks, are the same thing, all the country banks, are the same thing, all the country banks, many of which that a mere visit on business, to a foreign country, by an following sums have been advanced, we are unable or material finding favor with the whigh party. The buildsible statements, which keep up the credit of the here and a business more loosely conducted at the west, before he has perfected his naturalization, makes the decla-A late proclamation says positively the Emperor's brother banks until they are ripe and ready to fall into pie- The effect of a contraction here will therefore be first seen ration null and void. The Buffalo Commercial states the ARRIVAL OF A NEW Admiral on New Admiral on Board, arrived at Halif x on the 2nd of Indiana becomes, the more occusion for complaint him are aiding and abetting in ewinding, Me., while Presidence in the Millington Bank.

It is a hid rule that went work both wave.

A WELL MERITED CASTIGATION.

A neutral paper, the Boston Times, in discours-Ave, that's the question. While the Banks of throughout the country, as evidenced in the riots, retirement :- Eve. Post. surrounding States are resuming the fulfilment of rapes, robberies and murders everywhere taking place munity. "It cannot be denied," says an excellent sume, and then if a merchant has 10,000 dollars in they descended to the grossest familiarities with

Mr. Crampton were repeatedly broken, and his premises inincomplete the composed of the United States Government, has no right to the states Government to the states Go lin for a reinforcement of prime to protect his person and washings and drainings of both." Is it not a pregproperty. The police watched long in vain without detect- nant fact! Is it not full of admonition! Does it perfect immunity, and is not subject to the law, guilty of such debasing, such damable acts. By fruits, and a table fruit of all seasons. their conduct they have forfeited all claims to the These things should not be so. The Bank should character of virtue, morality, or honor; and destroy-stones had been thrown during the rev. gentleman's absence tederal government, by a perversion of its powers, be synonymous terms with the Democracy, and we fast visiting upon them the just rewards of their time. I suppose he must like now and then, has acquired an authority that quite overshadows shall then have a sounder, safer, more convenient crimes, and consigning them to the ignominy and that one who was so desperately determined on being "a three on being and the great Babel of the world,"martyr" as to take the trouble of breaking his own windows, the government of the States. It has arrogated currency, than could be furnished by all the Physical three disgrace they have so richly merited. — Dover Gaand to speculate upon what they are doing at Washington

Eank to regulate Banks and currency, is now seen profession. I was glad to find him so free from the pedantry tradistinguished from the interests of States which traditional states are stated to the interest of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states are stated to the state of States which traditional states PARIS, Monday, Sept. 13.—"An attempt has been made to subserve, and the delibto assassinate the Duke d'Aumule to day. He was at the evations and acts of the States have come to be coninfluence over each part. In the South and West himself with frankness and decision, and with that penetration King and Queen for hum and his comrades in arms, when a the real and highest interest of the people are inin the worst condition, the currency most deranged; in New York and New England, where it had no ed a pistol shot at him. It is said that the shot was directed It is to the State Government that they must look When the banks suspend payment, the people are in New York and New Fingland, where it had no words—very different from that of most mean trained in the & Co. to break down this Administration, and to pave the power, the banks and currency are in good order. forum or in legislative debate, who are apt to fall into a difand Monpensier were with him, and the assassin might have justice, and the guarantees of the largest freedom. To prevent the States suspending payment, the Thus, where the Regulator had power, there is de-fuse, speech-making, wearisome manner. struction; where it had no power, there is prosperi- It is remarkable now soon and how completely Mr. Van ty. This is the fact, and every body may see it; Buren's confidence in the good sense of his countrymen is ciples they will lose their power in every State in the Union. this is the fact, and every body may see it; eral Vaillant was killed, and the General was slightly internal improvement schemes, legal reforms, and inwounded in the knee. The assassin was about thirty years dividual rights. And it is therefore, of immense or reflection has arrived, and the the opposing of the ambition and proscription of Clay & Co. wounded in the knee. The assassin was about thirty years wounded in the knee. The assassin was about thirty years dividual rights. And it is therefore, of immense of age, and no doubt a member of the secret societies that bave lately been creating disturbances in Pairs, but as yet concern that the State government be administered banks suspend payment, and the people are cheated. ture regulator. But it is in the city of Philadelphia that favorable judgment upon the acts of his administration, no particulars have transpired concerning him. The name of by upright men, cherishing a liberal faith. One That speculators and banks may not lose upon that the character of this institution is best seen; which will be the judgment of history and of posterity." State, administered on democratic principles, would State stocks held by them, the States are loudly if it would do any good, there is the place-the seat After a few minutes' delay the march of the regiment was speedily regenerate the politics of nearly all the oth- called on to preserve their faith, and the people are of its existence—where it ought to be seen. Yet ical literature of Great Britain, as the author of an article in that an insurrection had likewise broken out at Riom, and different modes of treatment in different states, other creditors can grant without injustice to their He served during the war in the peninsula not in the lines, and in all it is in an unwholesome condition own creditors; but no violation of faith, public but as the political agent, or commissioner of the British ar-There was some approach to serious riots in Paris on To avoid the evils which arise out of banking, ex- or private, sanctioned by law or countenanced by wick—in which capacity he was frequently engaged in nepresumed, recommended him to the Tory administration of with an iron rod, which even the best whigs are wont to use, who are in reality their friends .- Boston Post. when in power, against all who are not native Englishmen.

ly conceive the extent of private distress which the failure 513,488 tion of the inhabitants. In almost all the circles in which so complacently, replied : "I know the old woman State out of a million or two of dollars; its movements of - 4,181,567 - you visit, you hear of some poignant instance of suffering- thumps me, and often bites and course are of some interest to our people, and for their grati-In every year it appears there was an excess of the im- of wealthy families suddenly reduced to poverty, of widows scratches me, and sometimes throws shuff in my fication we copy the annexed paragraph from a late New ports of silver, and that imports of either metals follow no who have lost their all, of orphans stripped of their patrimotion of several new forts having been erected. The walls of long train of evils, has been entailed upon the people fixed rule, but fluctuate with the demand. A closing up of ny which a long life of labor and economy on the part of eyes, but as long as she don't choke me to death, I'll York paper. Tinghae were likewise undergoing repair. These may be and their descendants for the next hundred years." the Southern Banks and a suppression of the irredeemable their parents had collected for them, of merchants compelled stick to her, for she furnishes me with victuals." The Morris Canal post notes sold to-day, at auction, $2,regarded as sympt ms for a long and severe struggle. There The difficulty is to prevent such a power from fall- paper in circulation would undoubtedly create a demand by diminished means to relinquish their houses and move out Hartford Times. can be no doubt that the auth cities at Canton are merely en- ing into the hands of the selfish and corrupt. Op. for silver for use, or as a general circulating medium that of town, and of laborers robbed of the hard-carned savings of deavoring to gain time with the view of collecting a large, and, as they hope, an overwhelming force, before they re-field in person, should such a measure be found necessary, at the growing anti-bank reening among the people, and the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the people, and the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the people, and the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the people, and the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the people, and the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the growing are growing anti-bank reening among the growing are growing anti-bank reening are growing are growing anti -they only chronicle the mischief already done. value in specie. This has already had the effect of raising tificate of the County Clerk. On questioning him, however, it appeared that he had, since the time his declaration was made, gone to Canada upon business. This, after due ex- above if required. In addition to the above, an In- coon skin, one quart of hard cider on draught, or its equivaamination of the laws upon the subject of naturalization was dian agency, at a salary of $750, stealings in the cures. We will venture to say that Mr. Harnden, for the Mury Rogers. No one knows my troubles," to prevent the assets of the bank from being per- a strong argument in favor of the measure. The public cannot to soon know the worst of the case, whatever it may thousands of dillars be spaced to the Government. Is it tod of seventeen years of age-by giving him the salary of tar yesterday, as he passed the Whig Reading pledge but broke it almost immediately. One rumseller, despatch agent in this place? We trust not; and we trust. Room, "What's that flag flying for !" "Why, they however, was brought under conviction, gave up the busimoreover, that the salary has not been raised to $1200 a year are short handed, and want to ship a crew-don't ness, and buint his liquor, being well paid no doubt by the Gross and shameless indeed, must the family favoritism of Daniel Webster have been, to call forth such a rebuke from one of his own partisans!

It is a bad rule that won't work both ways.

MR. VAN BUREN.

myself, and these woody hills, with the glorious views they command. I ramble for hours on the summits, and do not

The other day I was led by curiosity to visit Kinderhook, which I had never seen before. It is one of the pleasantest disagreeable places to live in.

About two miles south of the village is the dwelling of the

Here Mr. Van Buren employs himself in the cultivation of his newly-purchased acres, which, before he came into posance to be cleared away, and meadow lands overgrown with ministration. A large garden has been laid out, with a green cession of fish ponds, and the process of making into good meadow the moist lands covered with useless bushes, is go-teen miles on horseback; after breakfast he is engaged among his workmen till he is tired, and he then betakes himself to hands of the New York State authorities. The "It is an unfortunate feature in the political or be compelled to resume, and the Democrats of the ed, not only the confidence of the People, but their his hbrary, which he is constantly enlarging. In these oc- Captain exhibits a laudable regard for his own safecupations, and in friendly intercourse with his old friends tv. He says, however, that his evidence might It appeared, indeed, in evidence before the magistrates, that ests are allowed to absorb so much attention. The specie payments, and forfeiture of the community is and neighbors, the farmers of Kinderhook, he passes his clear McLeod by the reason that the latter was not "through the loop-holes of retreat,"— since he came away; but he is so absorbed in his agricultu- " Many who were whigs last year are now in uncertainty ral occupations that he appears to have no more to think of whether they are whigs or not. We confes that we are in THE REGULATOR .- The benefit of a National politics than any other well-informed man, not a politician by this predicament:"

Monroe County Lyceum .- Robert Dale Owen, what is the condition of Philadelphia! A loss of fif. of Posey county, and a very able and efficient mem-In one respect, the principle is the same. The ty-six millions on stocks in three years, on an ag. ber of the Board of Trustees of our State Universipeople are BOTH CHEATED AND TAXED gregate capital of sixty two millions! a loss unpar- ty, addressed this association, on the 29 ultimo. TO SAVE THE SPECULATORS FROM alieled since the days of Law's paper system in His theme was the Ultraism of the age-upon which son, proves to be Monroe Edwards, said to be a Colonel, an France, or the South Sea bubble in England he descanted for more than an hour, commanding the undivided attention of a large and respectable audience. The publication of his address is now in moment the thing looked very serious, but additional toops the legislature are perpetually regulating, we may zealously about the importance of preserving the Sir Howard Douglass. - This gentleman who has recently been appointed to the Governor-Generalship of Cana- perusal from a generous public, being firmly persuad-A telegraphic despatch from Clermont, dated the 13th, an- as thoroughly disordered and distempered as is the Democracy goes for GOOD FAITH ON ALL da, is well known to those who keep the run of the period- ed, that those who read it, will be more than amneunces that order was restored, that the troops re-occupied the States pay; let the States pay; let the banks pay; let the ban the military posts, and that the tolls were being gathered at the Quarterly Review, claiming for Captain Douglass the inthe barriers as usual. The Courier d'Lyon estimated at 190 the number of citizens killed at Cleimont. The National states

The business of banking has been regulated after number of citizens killed at Cleimont. The National states of the Alleghanies.—Bloomington Post.

THE FRIENDS OF THE WORKINGMEN .- The men employed in the U. S. Armory at Springfield, in this gotiations with the agents of the State of Maine, settling the | State, have been forbidden to receive or read books, plice of Peppard's, were attacked with stones in the Rue due of the western states have erected government bank, All such acts are blows aimed at the pillars which difficulties on the northern border. The knowledge thus procured of the localities of that region, and of the question in dismission! What shows the wanton tyranny of dispute between the American and British Governments, it is this order in the strongest light, is that most of the England as a fit person to send to the Hague in 1830, to aid men employed in the Armory work by the piece, siere, where they overturned an omnibus and raised a barri- the following account of the bank of its own state:

The following is the official return of the imports and ex- Sir Charles Baggot while the arbitration of the Northeastern and if they ever spend a moment to read a letter or Boundary Line was pending before the King of the Nether- converse with a friend, they, and not the governwhile a squadron of sergens de ville removed the barricade. tion, being authorized by the State Constitution. Imports and Exports of the lass written a refutation of Carnot's system of democratic admin fending besieged places, which displays great mastery of the istrations, in peace and war, the workmen enjoyed tempts to console England for her want of success in single combats on the sea against America, by ascribing the superiority of the Americans to their superior modes of practice ingmen's friend. We trust that this fact, and othwith the gun. Sir Howard has governed the Ionian Islands ers like it, will teach the mechanic and the laborer Peace somewhere up the White-water. After bearing the EFFECT IN PHILADELPHIA OF THE STOPPAGE OF THE UNIT- and the first one knocked out the peepers in Ver. away the money of the prosecuting witness, but that does ED STATES BANK .- A letter from a friend in Philadelphia, mont. Still they think it best to unite, and can see not amount, in the eye of the law, to Lasseny-so I dismiss who has had many opportunities of observing the state of no reason why they should desert Captain Tyler. him, and let's go and get a little something to take." feeling in that city, says that persons at a distance can hard- This puts us in mind of the old fellow whose better of the United States Bank has occasioned. A continued half was in the habit of chastising him occasionally, The Morris Canal and Banking Company, it is well known, gloom seems to have settled upon the faces of a large por- and when asked why he submitted to her cruelties admitty humbugged the whig managers of affairs in this travelled through the country last year abusing Mr. canal, as soon as they get it finished, to secure confidential

The following is the amount received by John W. the following as the plan of a bank to be established in ac-

$1400 in Gold and Silver.

$2000 in Bank notes. $450 check on the Bank of Circleville from N. S. should be procured, on which should be written requisitions $2500 if Harrison should be elected.

is reported that Col. Feraza is authorized to negotiate with our Government to form a treaty of amity and commerce; and further to request that our Navy may be authorized to a safety fund and further to request that our Navy may be authorized to have left the United States for even an and further to request that our Navy may be authorized to have left the United States for even an analysis of gold spoons, &c.

No wonder the people begin to cry, How long? Four citizenship, should be a resident of the country, and within the province of gold spoons, &c.

There you have a perfect model of a National Bank based within that time have left the United States for even an incomment. sary that any person desirous of securing the privilege of iel Payne, the lover of Mary Rogers, was found dead of gold spoons, &c. ted suicide. Payne called at the Phenix Hotel, Ho- A Model Wars Town .- A correspondent of the N. Y. authorized to pledge the faith of that government that the the bank under its own special direction from insol- ly way is to take the staff into their own hands, and comwhole expense of the Navy while thus engaged, should be vency, its inability to keep it from corrupt and pardefrayed by the government of Yucatan and a fair allowance made for the injury the vessels may receive. It is said this minister has brought with him $175,000 in specie, to te placed in the hands of government as an earnest that the
placed in the hands of government as an earnest that the

"Successive legislatures of both parties have

"Successive legislatures of both parties have

"Successive legislatures of both parties have

sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his
sty hit, at the eagerness of Daniel Webster to provide for his sty hit at a follows:

"This is truly labeled corner to be supported in the provide for his
sty hit placed in the hands of government as an earnest that the places are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the country called Despatch Agents. These are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions regers are now chosen, and other and important questions are such as former to some finite states are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the country called Despatch Agents. These are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the country called Despatch Agents. These are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the subject in earnest, and other and important questions are such as former to some plant of the subject in earnest, and their places are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the subject in earnest, and their places are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the subject in earnest, and their places are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the country called Despatch Agents. These are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the subject in earnest, and their places are soon to convene, we trust they will take a year each to the subject in earnest, and their places are soon to convene a year each to the subject in earnest the places are soon to convene a year each to the subject in earnest the places are s

Shipping a crew .- "Hallo, Jack." cried a jolly but with very little success. Several put their names to the you know the signal, you lubber ! - Boston Post. temperance reformers. As to politics the town is almost unan-

CHURCH RATES -Amongst the defiulters who | CLERGY OF THE ENGLISH CHURCH.-It is stated in one of appeared before the magistrates at the Hackney pet- the London papers, that a funeral was postponed for want of ty sessions, on Tuesday list, was an old blind men- a clergyman to perform the usual rites-no less than five hav-

McLEOD .- The trial of this individual is in prowith which the great statesman, who, on the fourth of March gression. It would be impossible for us to give the ing upon the vice and immorality now so prevalent last, laid down the highest office in the republic, amuses his whole testimony on each side, from its great quantity. If any thing extraordinary should occur during The crowd of summer company which was collected at the trial, we shall lose no time in laying it before the Springs has flown, and I have these beautiful vallies to our readers. So far as the trial has progressed, it appears that a portion of the testimony is of the highest importance, and not only connects McLeod intimately with the expedition against the Caroline, villages I know, situated amid a country of swelling uplands but makes him, by his own assertion, and by corbouse at Bath, had stopped. Great complaints and many the story of the last election by the political campaign for the election of a Preperceptible, stands the village; its broad streets embowered of that eventful night. The witnesses by whom with elms, and its clean comfortable dwellings half hidden these facts were proven, were men of more than uslike, prosperous enough to keep up the appearance of thrift ually intelligent appearance, and delivered their tes-House of Commons, Sept. 17th—31t. D. Date of Sep Supply, Lord John Russell objected at considerable length to the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the policy of the new ministers particularly in not making the new ministers and new ministers are necessarily necessa has suffered itself to be intimidated by clamorous good currency, and restore cheap exchanges, until statesmen, representatives in Congress, candidates are improving very fast, and which for that very reason are ination of Mr. Spencer, without shaking under it, with the conduct of his predecessions, and seemed to think the conduct of his predecessions, and seemed to think dient in place of the right; when, through repeated to talk about Regulators, and Balance-whiels, and intelligent, enlightened constituency, understanding ex-President Van Buren. It is a plain, substantial, commothat he was expressed for not proposing an alteration in the successes, it has grown indifferent to the principles all that sort of Tom-foolery, when the specie of the late ministers had not done it for which are the source of strength, it has always met all that sort of Tom-foolery, when the specie of the late ministers had not done it for which are the source of strength, it has always met all that sort of Tom-foolery, when the specie of the late ministers had not done it for which are the source of strength, it has always met Lord Palmers ton happily exposed several of Sir Robert's with merited, yet disgraceful defeats. But when it the country cursed with an irredeemable, irrespon- the third, but as an ignorant, inconsiderate multi-indications of uneasiness and fear. During the cross-examinations of the witnesses, session of them, were much neglected. There was a gar- he consulted much with Mr. Spencer, suggesting The spread of the facts elicited were scattered in-Thus far the state of the farm does credit to his skilful ad- dustriously by the thronged auditory among their house, and a long wall for espaliers and for the protection of fellow citizens after the adjournment of the Court, fruit trees; a copious spring has been made to supply a suc- and greatly increased the prevalent excitement in ing on with great activity. I remember that the Evening | The Philadelphia Ledger says that CAPTAIN Post said something since about Mr. Van Buren's cabbages, DREW, the leader of the gang of rascals who burned the earliest and finest in the whole country, but they went the Caroline refuses to give evidence in McLeod's to the kitchen long ago. I saw a great variety of young pear trees, ordered from Hamburg eight weeks before, and now in the ground, healthy and flourishing; they were of the United States Government, has no right to try The ex-President begins the day with a ride of ten or fifdetrimental to his safety should he ever fall into the present at the burning of the Caroline.

UNION OF THE WHIGS .- The Boston Courier, whig, says, selves, we consider the events which have transpired at

It also says that if the whigs do not go back to first prin-

More Union of the Whigs-Go it !- It is stated that John S. Gallaher, Esq. has withdrawn from the Whig paper proposed to be established at Washington. John H. Pleasants, Esq. will prosecute the enterprise, if he can.

The "Great Forger" or "financier" who was recently arrested at Philadelphia, with $44,000 of plunder on his peraccomplished gentleman, a member of the first society, and a generous whole souled fellow. He belongs either to Louisiana or Mississippi, where he owns an extensive plantation, and is no doubt, what he is represented to be. It will be recollected that in the past year he has perpetrated his jokes upon Little & Co. for $21,000, Brown, Brothers & Co. for $26,000, Edgar Corrie, Jr. for $26,000, and on other firms and banks for about $50,000 more. No less than $20,000 had been offered for his detection, and notwithstanding be eluded all suspicion for upwards of twelve months. Most dexterous rascal! It is said that some one in Wall street is implicated with "the Colonel" in his extensive forging operations. It is plain he has accomplices. No one man could have carried on so large a business so successfully. This atrest will, perchance, lead to the detection of the whole gang.

More Bank Law .- It is said that Reuben Strange, who was committed to jail a few months since for stealing labout $1500 from the Branch Bank at Lawrenceburgh, has been discharged by an Associate Judge, on the ground that the taking of the money was not larceny, but a mere breach of trust. A correspondent of the Lawrenceburgh Beacon says - Such evidence in a prosecutiou for theft he clears his throat and delivers this very sage opinion: "In this case it is clearly The pipelayers say the second veto killed Maine, proved that the defendant did feloniously steal and carry

000 for 32 cents on a dollar (68 per cent discount) and $200 has since been sold by Houghton & Co., for 29 cents on a dollar. The brokers think the company sell these notes to raise THE BUCKEYE BLACKSMITH. - It will be recol- the wind to meet their notes on demand and to pay office exlected by the public that the whig stumpers, that penses. As it is believed the company will dispose of the Van Buren and the democracy generally, and mak. debts, the contractors are now paying out the notes to their

A NEW WHIG BANK.-The Cincinnati Enquirer proposes

ing should be thatched, or covered with clapboards. 2d. In this bank there should be placed 500 barrels of hard cider, as a basis upon which to issue a very hard currency. 3d. A quantity of big coon skins and little coon skins upon the contents of the cider barrels in something like the following shape: Witnesses can be produced to substantiate the "Cashier of the Log Cabin Bank: Pay to the Bearer of this lent in "generous confidence."

BAMBOOZLE HUMBUG, President. This circulating medium might be ornamented, to suit the whig taste for pictures, by a representation of Tippecanoe SUICIDE OF THE LOVER OF MARY ROGERS .- Dan. at one end, and of "Tyler Too !" at the other, while the cenever, some citizens in this town who would be respected in in this town, according to the number of the inhabitants, than in any town in this State. Temperance meetings have been held here for the past three weeks, almost every day.

imously whig; in about 400 votes, the locos polled about 30.

A FIRST MATE -We reported a few days since, the arrival Mayagnoz of the brig Siisbee, whose Captain (Morrill) died when 15 days out. The Newburyport Herald inform-They have had severe storms and snow at the us that the big was navigated into Mayaguez by the Captain Wile